How to Play

These are the rules for the Pattern Spiel. The game is played on a 4x4 grid. The goal is to create a pattern of 4 squares of the same color. The game is played by two players. The first player starts by placing a square of a certain color. The second player then places a square of a different color. The game continues until one player has created a pattern of 4 squares of the same color. The player who creates the pattern first wins the game.
